

Autobiography of Ezra Kiplangat

Threads of Resilience:

A Journey of Growth, Discovery, and Purpose

Early Life in Kericho

- Born in Kericho County, Kenya (2001)
 - Raised among tea plantations and Mau Escarpment
 - Strong family values: hard work, resilience, compassion
 - Cultural festivals and community influence

Academic Foundation

- Primary and Secondary Education in Kericho
 - Passion for Mathematics and Science
 - Participated in regional science competitions
 - Built strong analytical and problem-solving skills

University Journey – Dedan Kimathi University

- Bachelor of Science in Information Technology
 - Active in IT and Cybersecurity associations
 - Participated in hackathons and robotics competitions
 - Mentored by inspiring lecturers

Passions Beyond Academics

- Football enthusiast (Manchester United fan)
 - Music and guitar performance
 - Volunteer work and charity initiatives
 - Leadership roles in school projects

Career Aspirations in IT

- Passion for innovation and technology
 - Interest in AI, robotics, renewable energy
 - Inspired by engineering and IT mentors
 - Goal: contribute to sustainable technological solutions

Overcoming Challenges

- Transition from high school to university
 - Balancing academics and responsibilities
 - Final-year project rejection and revision
 - Growth through resilience and perseverance

Travel and Exploration

- Explored East Africa (Kenya, Tanzania, Uganda)
 - Witnessed the Great Wildebeest Migration
 - Cultural immersion and global perspective
 - Personal growth through adventure

Core Values and Philosophy

- Integrity, compassion, continuous growth
 - Commitment to lifelong learning
 - Belief in dignity and equality
 - Vision of justice and sustainability

Vision for the Future

- Innovative IT solutions for global challenges
 - Community mentorship and service
 - Lifelong learning and personal development
 - Commitment to impact, purpose, and resilience